

Alliance Rider of the Year - Chris O'Shea

Wednesday, 18 November 2009

Congratulations goes out to Chris OShea for all of his hard work this year, especially when it comes to pushing freeriding in the limelight! No rider has worked harder than Chris this season and for his efforts he has officially been dubbed with the title ALLIANCES 2009 RIDER OF THE YAER!!

This is the one of the Highest Honors to be bestowed in wakeboarding and it could not go to a better rider than Chris O he is definitely pushing the sport in the right direction and there is a lot more to come from him